Claims & Resolutions

Tell us what orders you want about the intimate image that was shared or threatened to be shared without your consent.

If you're not sure, choose the option(s) that make the most sense to you. You can still make changes after you apply, after talking with your CRT case manager.

 When did someone share or threaten to share the intimate image of you?

If you're not sure, make your best guess. We need to know this date because it might affect what the CRT can order in your claim.

Month

Day

Year

My Claims

To make a CRT claim, you must agree to both of these statements.

- * I declare that the intimate image depicts or shows me.
- * I acknowledge that the CRT may need to attach the intimate image to the order, which I will have to provide to the respondents and anyone else I want to comply with the order.

What is your claim about?

* Complete Claims Section 1 (required): I want the respondent to compensate me because they distributed or threatened to distribute my intimate image.

Claims Sections 2 and 3 are optional.

Claims Section 2: A person or organization shared an intimate image of me without my consent.

Claims Section 3: A person or organization threatened to share my intimate image without my consent.

* Claims Section 1 (required)

I want the respondent to compensate me because they distributed or threatened to distribute my intimate image.

I want the CRT to order the respondent to pay me compensation.

* Amount (The amount cannot exceed $75,000) $

If you want to claim more than $75,000 you must file your claim in BC Supreme Court.

You can make a claim for damages (compensation) at the CRT for up to $75,000. You must limit your damages claim to $75,000 and agree to abandon the rest. That means you can't make another claim for the extra amount.

The application fee is:

- $100 for claims of $3,000 or less
- $150 for claims of $3,001 or more (limit $75,000)

Claims Section 2

A person or organization shared an intimate image of me without my consent.

What would you like the CRT to do? (select at least one remedy for this claim)

Determine that the intimate image of me was shared without my consent.

Order the person to stop sharing the intimate image.

Order the person who shared the image to make every reasonable effort to make the intimate image unavailable to others, including having it removed from any platforms and de-indexed from any search engine.

Order an internet intermediary, or other person or organization, to remove the image from any platform or other electronic place it is stored, delete or destroy the intimate image, and de-index the intimate image from any search engine.

* Which websites or platforms? (500 max characters)

Make a declaration that the respondent’s sharing of the image was unlawful conduct.

Order something else related to the intimate image (500 max characters)

Claims Section 3

A person or organization threatened to share my intimate image without my consent

What would you like the CRT to do? (select at least one remedy for this claim)

Order the person to stop threatening to share the intimate image.

Order the person who made the threat to delete or destroy all copies of the intimate image in their possession or control.

Make a declaration that the respondent’s threat to share the image was unlawful conduct.

 Claims Section 4: Additional Details

Tell us about how your intimate image was shared (or was threatened to be shared) without your consent. If you want to claim something other than the options above, use this box to explain what you want. (1,000 max characters)

Interest

The CRT's limit for damages under the Intimate Images Protection Act is $75,000.

The Court Order Interest Act applies to the CRT. Unless you waive or say you do not want interest, the CRT will calculate and add interest to any monetary award ordered.

Dispute-Related Fees & Expenses

We've automatically added a claim for dispute-related expenses. This means the CRT could order a respondent to reimburse you for things like courier costs for sending documents.

If you don't want this, you can ask your CRT case manager to remove it.

Evidence

The tribunal member who writes the CRT decision may need to see the intimate image or video, if you have it. If you don't, or decide not to give it to the CRT, that could impact whether you get the CRT decision and order you want and how you could enforce the order you do get.

Please don't send images or evidence by email, mail, or courier right now. Your CRT case manager will talk with you about how to send us images or other evidence you might want to give about how and when the image was shared without your consent.

Additional Details

* Are you involved in any court case about this intimate image?

If you have already filed a court case, it could impact what the CRT can order in your claim. Your CRT case manager will talk with you about this.

Yes What is the court file number? (50 max characters)
